UNBEATEN HILLTOPPERS GOING FOR FIFTH STRAIGHT WIN TODAY; HIGH SCHOOL BANDS GUESTS ON THE CAMPUS FOR HALFTIME 'BAND DAY' PROGRAM. WESTERN WELCOMES ALL THE GUESTS.

Western's unbeaten Hilltoppers come back to the Western Stadium this afternoon for the third home game of the season. The hard-hitting Hilltoppers have won their first four games of the campaign and rank second in the tough Ohio Valley Conference behind the Eastern Maroons.

Sparked by the brilliant quarterbacking of Jerry Nassano and the running of such ball carriers as Millard Shirley, Jim Gunnell, Jim Chambliss and Co., the Hilltopper attack has developed into a highly potent weapon both on the ground and in the air.

Co-captains Jerry Passafiume and Jim Phifer from their tackle positions have led the Western line to the 16th ranking in the nation among small colleges in defensive play. In each of the four victories scored, Hilltopper defenses have played vital roles. Time and again opposition thrusts have been stopped deep in Western territory and turned back to preserve victory.

Over the four games played the Hilltoppers have given up only 331 yards on the ground and 275 yards in the air for a total of 606 yards gained. Western's offense has ground out 907 yards on the ground and 316 yards in the air for a total of 1223 yards.

As of last Monday morning, the following bands and directors had indicated they would be present today for Band Day.

Jerry Nassano ranks fifth in the nation among the nation's small college passers. The Newport, Ky., junior has completed 28 of 50 attempts for 286 yards and two touchdowns.

Millard Shirley ranks with Kentucky's leading scorers with 24 points. He has scored four of Western's 13 touchdowns.

All the bands and their directors here for this annual Band Day celebration are most cordially welcomed. The halftime festivities staged by the bands is one of the highlights of each year's football season.

The Hilltoppers after today's game which marks the half-way point of the season take on five more opponents. Next Saturday night Coach Jack Clayton and his squad will be at Cookeville, Tenn., for an Ohio Valley Conference clash with the OVC's defending champions, the Tennessee Tech Golden Eagles.

On Saturday, Oct. 30, at 2 P. M. in the Western Stadium, the Hilltoppers renew one of Western's oldest rivalries against the University of Louisville Cardinals. These two foes of long-standing have not met since 1949.

What promises to be one of the best games to be played in Kentucky this season comes up on Nov. 6 when the powerful Eastern Maroons come in to supply the Homecoming foe. This will be the last home game of the year for the Hilltoppers.

On Nov. 13 Western meets Evansville at Evansville and closes out the season against Murray at Murray on Nov. 20.

Band Day is one of the most colorful events held at Western each year. The halftime show at the football game in the Western Stadium is highlighted by the massed bands on the field for two numbers.

Prior to the game, the visiting bands along with the Western band stage a parade through downtown Bowling Green and up College Street to the Stadium.

Western is happy and proud to have all the visiting musicians as guests today. The Music department, headed by Dr. Hugh Gunderson, will be host to our visitors immediately following the game for refreshments and entertainment at the Music Hall.

Each year all of us here at Western look forward to Band Day and the wonderful visitors who come to participate in this outstanding event with us. We hope that all of you have a most enjoyable day and come back to the campus often. You are always welcome on College Heights.

Today's game with Northwest Louisiana is the first afternoon game of the 1954 season. The Hilltoppers have two more afternoon games to play in the Western Stadium. Both are certain to be thrilling and hard-fought contests. The next home game on Oct. 30 is against the University of Louisville Cardinals, a long-time rival back on the Hilltopper's slate for the first time since 1948.

The season at home will be closed out on Nov. 6 when the powerful Eastern Maroons come in for Western's annual Homecoming game. The rivalry with Eastern dates back to 1914.

Sophomore members of Western's football squad have played a prominent role in the success of this year's team. In the line such stalwarts as Sonny Berthold, Twyman Patterson, Leon Dunagan, Carroll Spears, all tackles; Gene Robertson, guard; Bill Strawn, center; and Joe Cunningham and Mike Moriarity, ends, give the Hilltoppers terrific depth to call on for bruising battles with opposing lines.

In the backfield the sophomores supply speed and heavy hitting power. Jim Aurs, Jim Chambliss, Jack Johnson and Jerry Brantley, all halfbacks, supply the speed. The power runners are fullbacks Wayne Duncan and Bob Gerard.

Against Middle Tennessee as in every other game the sophomores came through with flying colors. Wayne Duncan shook the Raider quarterbacks loose from the ball in order that Joe Cunningham could make a vital recovery. Mike Moriarity caught two critical passes in the dying minutes to keep Western's drive rolling. Jim Chambliss drove the last four yards for the touchdown which tied the Raiders as the game ended. Then Jerry Brantley came in to kick the winning point after the game was over.
